

“As he walked along, he saw a man blind from birth. His disciples asked him, ‘Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?’ Jesus answered, ‘Neither this man nor his parents sinned; he was born blind so that God’s works might be revealed in him. We must work the works of him who sent me while it is day; night is coming when no one can work. As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.’” (John 9:2-5, NRSV)

“[...gave gifts unto men]. And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ...” (Ephesians 4:11-12, KJV)

“The gifts he gave were that some would be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for the building up the body of Christ...” (Ephesians 4:11-12, NRSV)

“Now concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me: It is good for a man not to touch a woman. Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, let every man his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.” (I Corinthians 7:1, KJV)

“Now concerning the matters about which you wrote: “It is well for a man not to touch a woman.” But because of sexual immorality, each man should have his own wife and each woman her own husband.” (I Corinthians 7:1, NRSV)
